

RICON19

Lab Workshop + International Conference + Brokerage Event + Mine Site Visit

organized within REMINE H2020-MSCA-RISE-2014 project, which took place at the University of Beira Interior in Covilhã, Portugal, between 11 to 13th December 2019, certifies that

Nassima bakir

was presented during the all event, namely, attended the Laboratory Workshop on Accelerated Carbonation Technologies, Conference, Brokerage Event and Mine Site Visit and presented the paper entitled

Study of the effect of waste glass fibers incorporation on the collapsible soil stability behavior

that is included in the conference proceedings.

Covilhã, University of Beira Interior, 17th December 2019

João Castro Gomes

Chairman of the Organizing local committee

The REMINE project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under the Marie Skłodowska-Curie agreement n° 645696.

REMINE and RICON19 conference is also co-funded by the Portuguese Foundation for Science and Technology (FCT).