

LEXICAL ECHOES: A JOURNEY THROUGH ENGLISH WORDS

Prof Tayeb Bouazid

خيال
مكتبة

ICARS
مركز الأبحاث والدراسات المتقدمة

Icars éditions

I.S.B.N: 978-9969-618-01-3

Dépôt légal: deuxième Semestre 2025

icarseditions@gmail.com

0774465958 / 035865297

Bordj Bou Arreridj - Algérie.

Première édition

Tous droits réservés

دار خيال للنشر والترجمة ©

تجزئة 53 قطعة. رقم 27. بليمور

برج بوعريش - الجزائر -

0774465958

035865297

Khayaleditions@gmail.com

جميع الحقوق محفوظة للناشرين.

Tayeb Bouazid

Lexical Echoes: A Journey through English Words

Foreword

A booklet on Lexicology can serve the students in their module of Lexicology and Vocabulary Practice. The eight suggested chapters are just an introduction to Lexicology for Masters Students who need to discover and know the definition of lexicology, its role and function within the whole matters concerning language and its use. Students are supposed to go through the chapters, do the proposed practical activities and follow with their teachers' feedback.

Lexicology as a credit works with language mastery and analysis. They both consolidate learners' prior knowledge and the stock of vocabulary they possess. Learners need to update their notions of vocabulary function, use and practicality.

Wish you the best

The author
Pr Tayeb Bouazid

Aim of the course

The goal of this booklet on lexicology is

1. To offer students an insight into the origin and development of the English vocabulary.
2. To discuss the problems of word-structure and word-formation in English.
3. To deal with meanings of modern English words and their changes in the course of historical development
4. To study the use of English words, phrases and idioms and to enlarge the learners' mental scope with the English varieties of expressive words, common phrases and idiomatic expressions, idioms, phrasal verbs and prepositions and enable them to use them appropriately with the intention to help them avoid confusion
5. To answer What language family does English belong to?

Materials Needed

- Dictionaries
- PPT
- Videos

Acknowledgements

The author expresses his deep acknowledgements...

- To Dr. Touati Mourad whose constant advice on teaching this module was noticeable. He was always my moral support in keeping track of novelties and discovery.
- To all the Teachers of the Department of English Msila namely Dr Hammoudi Aboubakr, Dr Senoussi Mohammed, Dr Sahed Bachir, Dr Karima Ladjel, Dr Mohamed Gouffi , Dr Benaâ Youcef and Dr Refice Nouredine.
- To Previous Master Students who studied the module of Lexicology and had contributed to its thriving through practical activities and insightful questions.
- To all master students, who showed a great envy in studying hard for this module, and were ready to prepare folios on it.

Table of Contents

Page

Foreword	5
Aim of the course	6
Acknowledgements	7
Introduction	15
Lexicology and Lexicography	15
1.Definition of Lexicology	15
2.Definition of Lexicography	15
3.The difference between Lexicology and Lexicography	16
4.What is a word?	16
4.1.What is vocabulary?	17
4.2.What is Lexis?	17
4.3. Nature of Headwords	18
4.3.1. Orthographic words –	18
4.3. 2. Phonological words	18
4.3.3. Lexeme	18
5. Inflections	18
6. Homographs	19
7.Homophones	20
8.Homonyms	21
9.Polysemy	21
Examples of Polysemy with References	22
Bank	22
Paper	22
Head	22
Mouth	22

Bright	22
Glass	23
Run	23
Practical Part:	23
Chapter 2. PARTS OF SPEECH: The Eight “building blocks” of the English language...	29
Practical Part:	30
Chapter Three: ORIGIN OF ENGLISH WORDS –etymology, lexical borrowing, adding to the lexicon	32
3. Etymology: Definition and scope:	32
3.1. Brief History of English Development	33
3.2.Examples of origin of English words	33
3.3.lexical borrowing	34
3.4. Mechanisms for creating new vocabulary	35
A brief overview	35
A Detailed Overview:	35
3.4.1. Coining: Word Coinage	36
1. Derivation	36
2. Back formation	37
3. Compounding	37
Examples of Word Compounding	37
4. Calquing	38
4.1. Examples of Calquing	38
4.2.Types of Calques	39
4. Conversion	39
Examples of Conversion (Zero Derivation)	40
5. Eponyms	40
7. Clippings: Abbreviations	41
7.1.What is Clipping?	41

7.2.Types of Clipping with Examples.....	41
7.3. Abbreviations vs. Clippings.....	42
7.4.Common Abbreviations	42
8. Loanwords:	42
Common Loanwords in English.....	43
9. Onomatopoeia:.....	43
List of Onomatopoeic Words in English.....	43
9. Reduplication:.....	44
Common Reduplicatives in English	44
10. Portmanteaus:.....	45
11.1.What is a Portmanteau?	45
11.2. Common Portmanteau Words with Origins	46
12. Blending.....	47
Practical Part:	47
Chapter Four: Sense Relations: Sense Relations 1	48
4.Synonymy / Antonymy	48
Examples of Synonymy and Antonymy.....	48
4.1.Synonymy	48
4.2.Antonymy	48
1. Hyponymy / Hypernymy.....	49
2.Examples of Hyponymy and Hypernymy	49
Hyponymy and Hypernymy Examples.....	50
3.Meronymy	50
4.Examples of Meronymy	50
Meronymy Examples (Part–Whole Relationships)	50
5.Denotation and Connotation	51
6.Collocation.....	54
Common English Collocations	54

Verb + Noun	54
Adjective + Noun	54
Noun + Noun	55
Verb + Adverb	55
Adverb + Adjective	55
Practical Part:	55
Chapter 5: The Dictionary	57
5.Dictionarys are books that list all the words in a language. With a Dictionary, you can learn:	57
5.1. Definition of a dictionary:	57
5.2. How is a Dictionary Organized?	57
5.3. Using the dictionary	57
5.4.Science Dictionary Definitions: What do they mean?	58
5.5.Types of Dictionarys	58
6. VOCABULARY	60
Chapter Six: Lexical Relations/Structural	62
Semantics/Word Associations / Classification of Words	62
1.Two basic principles of grouping words:	62
2. SEMANTIC CLASSES (CATEGORIES):	62
2.1. SYNONYMS	62
2.2. Types of synonyms:	62
2.3. Classification of Synonyms	63
2.4. SYNONYMIC DOMINANT -	63
2.5. Characteristic features of the dominant synonym	63
Synonyms	63
3. EUPHEMISM -	64
Common Euphemisms in English	64
4. ANTONYMY	65

Antonyms.....	65
4.1. CLASSIFICATION OF ANTONYMS.....	66
4.2. Interchangeability of Antonyms:	66
4. 3. Lexical and Terminological Sets	66
4.4. Lexico-semantic group:	66
4.5 SEMANTIC FIELDS	67
Chapter Seven: MORPHOLOGY : THE.....	69
STRUCTURE OF WORDS.....	69
7. MORPHOLOGY	69
7.1. Free and Bound Morphemes	69
Examples of Free and Bound Morphemes	69
Free Morphemes	69
Bound Morphemes	69
7.2. DERIVATIONAL MORPHOLOGY	70
Examples of Morphological Derivation.....	71
7.3. INFLECTIONAL MORPHOLOGY	71
7.4. VERB INFLECTIONAL SUFFIXES.....	72
7.5. NOUN INFLECTIONAL SUFFIXES	72
7.6. ADJECTIVE INFLECTIONAL SUFFIXES.....	72
Practical Part:	73
Chapter 8: -Collective Nouns, Idiomatic expressions, diminutives and Foreign Words	75
8.Introduction to Collective Nouns	75
8.1.Definition:.....	75
8.2.Explanation:.....	75
8.3.Examples	75
8.4.NOUNS Denoting Sounds	77
8.5.Idiomatic Comparisons	77

8.6.Diminutives-	78
8.7. FOREIGN WORDS AND THEIR PLURALS	79
Chapter 9: Multi-word lexemes (MWL)	81
9.1. Phrasal Verbs	81
9.2.Separable vs Non-separable 2- Word Verbs	81
9.3.Some Two word verbs with objects are NOT separable...	81
9.4.Compounds	82
2.Compound Adjectives	83
9.5.Idiomatic phrases	83
9.5.1. Idioms	83
9.5.2.Common Idiomatic Phrases & Expressions	84
9.5.3.Common Idiomatic Phrases & Expressions	84
Practical Part:	84
Conclusion	93
References	94
GLOSSARY OF BASIC	96
LEXICOLOGICAL NOTIONS AND TERMS	96
General overview of Lexicology as a science	96

Prof Bouazid is a poet and a writer of many books, reflections, Pedagogical Book on educational Psychology, Perspectives on Didactics of English, Strategies for Effective Academic Reading, Crafting Clear Arguments (a Guide to Academic Writing), Precision in Print: Mastering Advanced Written Communication, Creative Myriads Under the Shade, Reflections on EFL Algerian Teaching tayeb.bouazid@univ-msila.dz

Lexical Echoes: A Journey Through English Words

Language is not merely a system of signs—it is a living archive of human thought, history, and imagination. Lexical Echoes: A Journey Through English Words invites students, scholars, and word enthusiasts alike to set forth on a thoughtful exploration of the English lexicon, idiomatic expressions, and derivations uncovering the stories that words whisper across time. This book traces the pathways through which English has evolved—Through trade, conquest, innovation, and daily life, English words have echoed the footsteps of civilizations, adapting to new meanings and re-shaping identities. More than a study of etymology, this journey offers a reflective lens into how language grows, borrows, and breathes. Lexical Echoes encourages readers to see vocabulary not as fixed entries in a dictionary, but as vibrant markers of collective memory and human creativity. Ideal for learners of linguistics, lovers of language, and educators seeking depth and wonder in words, this book is both a scholarly guide and an invitation to listen—to the echoes within our everyday speech.

Prof Tayeb Bouazid is a graduate and postgraduate lecturer in the English Department University Mohamed Boudiaf, Msila, Algeria. He has a PhD in British Literature and Language Teaching, an MA in psycho pedagogy and TEFL, a MEd (with specialisation in Environmental Education (UNISA) and a Teacher Trainer Certificate of Advanced Studies from Lancaster University(UK). In addition, he is awarded a completion certificate with Middle East Partnership of the best practices in teacher training programs. Pr Bouazid is a freelance writer for the London School of Journalism . He is a teacher Trainer, researcher, contributed to many articles writing- Southern African Journal of Environmental Education, Vol. 26, 2009 , Arab Gulf Journal of Scientific Research, 27 (1&2): 59- 69 (2009), Per Linguam 2010 26(2): 33-49 Department of Curriculum Studies, Private Bag X1 7602 Stellenbosch, South Africa.